A Message to the Parish from Mary Jo Bennett

Easter Greetings!
It's been six months since my move to Spring Creek, North Carolina and I want to let you know how things are going.
Some of you are at my new parish, well, not actually you ... but people who remind me of you. When I see you I pray for you and everyone at Sts. Mary and John Parish. Now I attend St. John the Evangelist in Waynesville, North Carolina. It takes 50 minutes to drive the zigzagging, up and down mountain road to church. I consider it a pilgrimage each week and am grateful for the company of my guardian angel!
My son and daughter-in-law live just 3 miles from me. It is so nice not to have to drive 8 hours in order to visit them! The twice a week exercise class gives me a good way to meet people.
Spring Creek runs right through my front yard and I can hear it flowing from the house when the windows are open. It is beautiful to look at as is Bluff Mountain across the road. The move has been a good one for me, though I do miss being connected with you each weekend!

Your Friend,
Mary Jo Bennett
